BY HENRYK SIENKIEWICZ,

Author of "Quo Vadis," "The Deluge," "With Fire and Sword," &c., &c.

her, the arms of a father, not of an ex-

forgive me. child!"

House Used Club in

Seizing Goods.

lows and her scalp cut in several ut who her assailants were, woman explained that a few weeks

WUMAN BEATEN

Last night she said two men forced their way to her room while she was alone with her three children and demanded the rug and clock.

When she tried to prevent them from manded the rug and elect.

When she tried to prevent them from memoring them, she said, one of the men drew a club and attacked her savingsly. She was beaten almost unconscious, and when she called a policeman to arrest the men for assuut, she said, the officer refused.

Proprietor

AID FOR CUBAN ORPHANS.

Pair to Be Held During Baster Week.

Mrs. Annie Dooley, of 166 High places, Mrs. Annie Dooley, of 166 High street, Brooklyn, applied in the Adams Street Court to-day for warrants for the arrest of agents of an instalment from who she said had beaten her while trying to seize some property she had bought, but not paid for in full.

Mrs. Dooley did not know the men's manes. The Magistrate said he would gladly issue the warrants if she could find out who her assailants were. and navy officers.

Kinley said he could not tell definitely

Told of Father's Neglect and Got Her Di-him in the doorway of the flat at 187 Miss Berger Recognizes Dean street, Brooklyn, where their father, John J. O'Keefe, had taken up Gen. Schalk-Berger's his abode with a new love.

"I will not," said he, "for she took care of me when I was out of work."
"That's no way to treat your own children," said the "pretty lady," coming up "Kiss them and have them come in," she said. O'Keefe did as he was Md, and who the "pretty lady" told him he must go and see the wife he had left at 1994 Pacific street he obediently premised, for the "pretty lady" said:

"If you don't go and see your wife I'll lock the door on you and send the furniture away."

furniture away."

O'Keefe promised to visit his wife next evening, and put the little boye who had come to plead with him in a car.

But Katherine V. O'Keefe waited in vain for him. He did not come, so she sued her recreant husband for divorce and enough alimony to keep her and her manly little boys from starving.

Horsatio C. King was the referee, and it was before him that the little boys told the atory of their visit te their father.

told the story of their visit to these father.

Johnnie told the referes that he had learned from the Bible at his mother's kines that if he told a lie he would go to hell, and Charle said solemnly that if he didn't tell the truth he would not go to heaven.

On Referes King's report Judge Garretsen granted a diverse birs. O'Keste and ordered the husband, who is a bookkeeper, to pay 87 a week alimony.

he full down, too. Finally I get her home. Cuine followed. "Then I notified Mr. Jeyes, who was in

"Then I notified Mr. Jeyen, who was in a neighboring saless, that his wife had been taken home drunk. He went home and found Coine there.

"The two of them made up their minde that I had insulted them and more than an hour later came out looking for trouble. They set upon me and knocked me down and I would have been hedly ured if another officer hadn't been header.

NOLBLIST BARR SAILS.

Write a Story of Amerione Politice.

ert Barr, the novelist, started fo

RUSSIA WILLSAY "STOP THE WAR."

BY P. LOUTER WESSELS.

Special Agent of the South African Republica,

Intervention Within Three Months by South African Republics.

Promised Slaughter Has Not Begun-Whole Country Out of Bloemfontein is Mined to Blow the British Army Into Shreds.

Langer on Tunding eventing, April 2, on "The Others Pullive."

At 3s. Fund's Protection Episcopal Cheed. Breadway and Pulma streets, neously Lenten evertons are boths bettl, at each of which the normal delivered by a openial practice."

Boy R. Holes Newton, D. D., will presch in All Boale Protectant Riplecopal Church temory mersing the fifth earmon is the course on "Christianty in Evolution." The topic will be "The Nov Church." Boy. R. Holes Newton, D. D. F. Bilts will proch in the severaing on "The Life in Coomma." "The Acceptable Eartice" will be the theme to—merow morning of Rev. Emer Addison Dent. in the Popic's Church, East Bitty-Sent street, between Third and decend avenues. "Past, the Hissistenty to the Gentled" will be the considered to the Street of the University of Pennylvania Rabyienias (The Gentled Church, East Bitty-Sent street, between Third and decend avenues. "Past, the Hissistenty to the Gentled" will be between the Sistenty of the founding at the Church of St. Bissent the Sistenty of the founding and foressens and in the overlang. Rev. Prank R. Cheardenia, D. D. Freder of R. Feter's Protectant Episcopal Church. Sensible street, and will be cheered as the region of the Sistenty of the Gentled and The Sistenty of the Church of St. Sistenty of the Sistenty and the Church of St. Sistenty of the Sist cording to Her Record.

by persons living across the bridge.

NO EXTRA CHARGE POR IT.

tob Chief Besses of her Leve DIARY OF A SEERESS.

"To Hartem in fifteen munition in substantial lots. We have just placed an order for 180,000 pounds of ammunition. This will need a ship, and we may not receive it. But we have enough anyway.

RUSSIA AFTER TRADE, TOO.

GIVES SATISFACTION

A Certain Cure for Plles.

should not be judged by the penny methods of the Dent Here everything guaranteed actly as advertised.

Rubber Seta, from $2.00.

Gold Crowne, from $2.00.

Gold Fillings, from $2.00.

Never Closed, Day, Night or St HANKS DENTAL ASSIN

12 years at

Eve Classes F

A WALTHAM WATCH CHEAP.

DIAMONDE, velebres weekly segme excels; medicate price. AMERIC A BIAMOND CO., 10 Master less. DIAMONDA, Wather; weekly a LAVEST STYLE 5 december on Sample Machine; all obtachments; pour Free Philips, de Print ava, Sreettys.
FOR ALL-Tue R-P-A-N-S for 5 co

VORCES Blo entire oppones. Lawyer W. H.

"To Harlem in fi -World, April 8, 1808.

grasped her wrists, and with super-human strength dragged her upon the pier. Again she felt under her feet the solid planks; again she felt arms around on his breast.
On regaining her senses, she saw that the was lying by the side of her father on the pier. Though it was dark, she can that he lay with his arms out-spread like a cross, and that his body was convulsed with the sobs that tore

"Father, may the Lord forgive thee as I forgive thee."

From a pale brightness on the horison emerged the moon, large, clear, and full. Again something wonderful happened. Marry saw, as in a vision, that from the moon there floated down myriads of cherubim, like golden bees—

Sented down to her upon the rays, their wings fluttering, and singing with childish voices:

Martyred maides, peace be to thee!

Plear bird, peace be to the!

Plear bird, peace be to the!

Thus singing above her, they waved

why, but it seemed to Mary that they old gentleman became impatient with why, but it seemed to Mary that they must go there. On the way they met a number of loaded wagons, and the street place to thee!

Thus singing above her, they waved of a business place stood a tall man.

Then, turning to Lorenz and Mary, he

Dewey, Gen. Miles and many other army

The woman explained that a few weeks ago rice hought a clock and a rug for added: "What has been stated of the P3 on the instalment plan. Her husband "an working then, but after $7.25 had been paid for the goods he lost his job." When the collectors called last week seminoutly praisoverthy and likely to explained matters. Dealey said she explained matters this sympathy and support."

Proprietor Coine, of the New Amsterdam, in Court.

Ameterdam Hetel of the late Martis on, was arraigned in the Yorkville Police Court this morning, together with James Joyce, of 60 Third avenue harged with disorderly conduct by Policeman Robert Cron. Preprietor Coine and Joyce were arrested at 3 o'cleck Wednesday morning last, but the facts have been kept so-cret until now.

the Mediterranean to-day on the Trave. At Genoa he is to spend some time be-fore returning to England with Eden

Gen. Schalk-Berger's

Picture.

Miss Mina Berger, of Giffords, S. I., halloves that Gen. Schalk-Berger, who is one of President Kruger's war enbinet in the Transvani, is her long-lest brother, Edward Schaek-Berger. She had heard nothing from him in thirty years until she new his picture in a group printed in The Evening World. Berger was a soldier in Curumny's war of 1970. His brothers and cinters came to this country and heard interthat their brother was fend. He particulars were sent.

that their brother was dead. We particulars were sent.
When she saw the picture in The Evening World Miss Berger showed it to her brother, A. C. Berger, for whom she is housekeeper, and said:
"That is our brother Edward, sure.
It looks assetly like him, only cider,
of course."

Miss Berger's mother was Chara.
Schalk. Her father was Dr. Rudelph A.
Berger, Edward bore both family names.
A. C. Berger has been employed in

A. C. Berger has been o

SHE DEFIED GEN. BULLER.

cherical, see, by the described from)
LONDON, March M.—If earthing is interesting coulsty more than the constant departure of fashionable wemon for Cape Town it is the candals that come back about these already there.
The latest is that of a weman, long prominent in secrety and the wife of a well-known Barenet.
She went out to nurse Gen. Buffer's wounded, but, becoming the were for liquor, she was cleat up by that commander in the room of the local stationmanter. Discovering his reference and a short coat, she denned them, after accrificing her own raiment.
She afterward refused to make a change, and thus scantily clothed she was carried through the lines of Gen.
Buller's troops in an ambulance, was shipped to Cape Town and in new in England.